Cat

found

BY
Bella Pritchett

One morning, before the moon dipped below the horizon, Cat got up early. She found a surprise the night before, so she wanted to go out and use it.

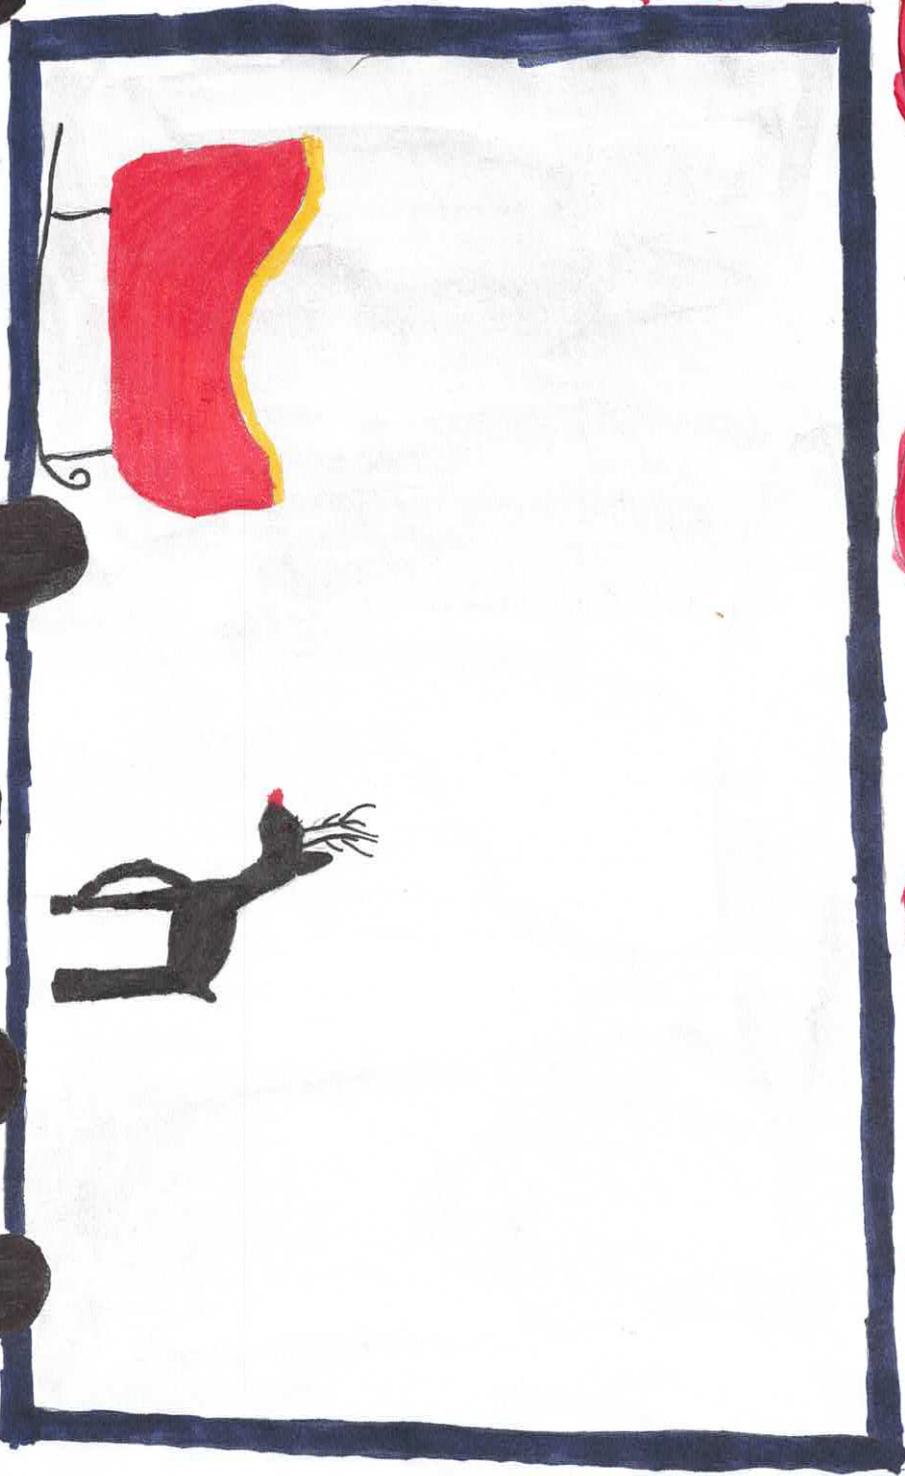

As the sun rose,
Cat walked along
a big fence to town.

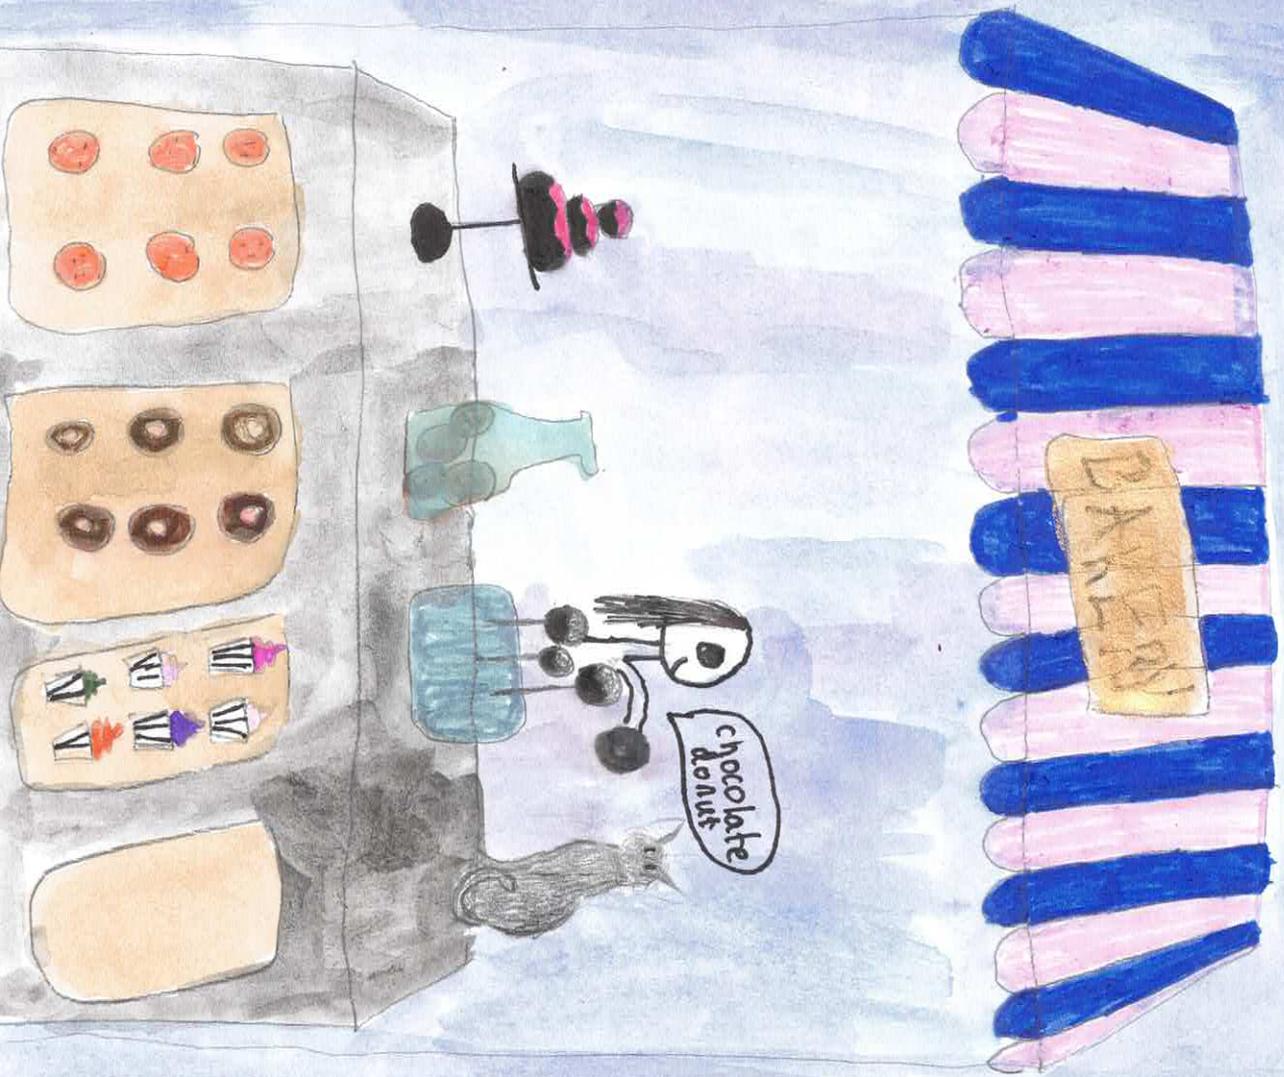

When Cat Finally
reached town, she was starving. She decided to have cake
for breakfast.

Since it was so hot, Cat thought
it would be fun
to watch a winter
movie.

Since she was hungry again,
Cat went to the local bakery to buy desert.

Cat needed a drink to wash down her donut, so she went to the supermarket.

SUPERMARKET

Cat felt guilty, she had spent her owner's money, so she went and picked her a huge flower.

When Cat finally
got home, she gave
the flower to her owner,
who was delighted.
